FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Department of Physics at the City College of New York invites applications for a tenure track position at the Assistant/Associate Professor rank in theoretical condensed matter physics. Appointment at Full Professor level will be considered in exceptional cases.

Candidates should have a PhD in physics or a related discipline and at least one year of postdoctoral experience. The successful candidate is expected to develop a vigorous, independent, externally-funded research program and have a commitment to excellence in teaching. Candidates will be considered at a senior level based on achievements, broad recognition and the expectation of future work at this level. Preference will be given to candidates whose work articulates well with present strengths and needs of the department.

The selected candidate will also share responsibility for committee and department assignments including administrative, supervisory, and other functions.

The Division of Science is committed to a welcoming workplace diverse in all its dimensions. The Division's Diversity Statement can be viewed at <https://www.cuny.cuny.edu/science>.

QUALIFICATIONS

Ph.D. degree in Physics or equivalent. Also required are the ability to teach successfully, demonstrated scholarship or achievement, and ability to cooperate with others for the good of the institution.

COMPENSATION

CUNY offers faculty a competitive compensation and benefits package covering health insurance, pension and retirement benefits, paid parental leave, and savings programs. We also provide mentoring and support for research, scholarship, and publication as part of our commitment to ongoing faculty professional development.
